

A Visit-Ability Certification Program for Virginia

A Coalition of Supporters

Program Benefits

Next Steps

A Coalition of Supporters

- Centers for Independent Living
- Area Agencies on Aging
- Home Builders Associations
- Virginia Association of Realtors
- Virginia Housing Development Authority
- Department of Housing & Community Dev.
- Housing Redevelopment Authorities

Program Benefits

- Branding & Certification
- Endorsement of the Coalition
- Information and Referral of Home Buyers
- Full Use of the Disabled Tax Credit

Next Steps

- Non-Profit Organization
- Affiliation with National Organization?
- Building of the Coalition
- Recruitment of Builders
- Marketing to Home Buyers

The Housing & Transportation Alliance

- Goal: To develop a Transportation and Housing Alliance (THA) that will serve as a conduit of information, resources, technical assistance and education. The THA will make public policy recommendations in the areas of transportation and housing and work to build and improve community infrastructure in localities and statewide.

The Housing & Transportation Alliance

- Harrison Bright Rue is Executive Director of the Thomas Jefferson Planning District Commission in Charlottesville, Virginia. He is the founding Director of the Citizen Planner Institute, and has over 30 years experience as a planner, builder, developer, and public involvement facilitator. He specializes in community-based planning linking transportation, land use, and environment.