

Joint Subcommittee to Study the Impact of Collecting Remote Sales Taxes on the Economy of the Commonwealth (HJR 176 - 2004)

November 23, 2004

The Joint Subcommittee to Study the Impact of Collecting Remote Sales Taxes on the Economy of the Commonwealth (HJR 176 - 2004) held its final meeting on November 23, 2004. Nine voting members of the joint subcommittee were present.

The joint subcommittee met to consider the findings and recommendations of the joint subcommittee. Mr. Steve DelBianco, a member of the joint subcommittee, submitted proposed findings and recommendations.

The joint subcommittee adopted Mr. DelBianco's proposed findings and recommendations with one technical change. These findings and recommendations were adopted by a voice vote with one dissenting vote cast. No other comprehensive findings or recommendations were presented at the meeting.

The findings and recommendations of the joint subcommittee as adopted by the joint subcommittee on November 23 (without the approved technical correction) can be found at the following address:

<http://dls.state.va.us/GROUPS/HJR176/Meetings/112304/HANDOUTS.HTM>