Virginia Tourism Corporation Civil War Traveler Profile

The following information is drawn from a survey of more than 4,000 visitors to Virginia in 2003/2004. More than ten percent of those surveyed said they experienced a Civil War site while here. Data for all visitors is represented in first column. Data for those who experienced a Civil War site as part of their trip to Virginia is represented in the second column.

Summary:

- New York City is the number 1 market from which Virginia draws Civil War visitors while North Carolina is the top state (aside from Virginia itself)
- Civil War traveler parties have fewer young children and more older adults
- The Civil War traveler tends to stay longer and spend more money than the average visitor
- Civil War travelers tend to more thoroughly research and plan their trips and do so months in advance rather than days or weeks in advance
- The average travel party size is two persons
