

Transitional Therapeutic Communities (TTC)

- TTCs offer a 6-month transition (reentry) to the free-world environment.
- TTCs provide a continuity of treatment model.
- Inmates and Probationers are required to secure employment with the assistance of the TTC.
- TTCs help offenders develop strong recovery support systems and healthy relationships.

Current TTC Providers

- Gemeinschaft (Harrisonburg) - 60 male beds
- Serenity (Newport News) - 63 male beds
- Hegira House (Roanoke) - 14 female beds
- Bethany House (Roanoke) - 13 female beds
- Rubicon (Richmond) – 34 male beds
- Vanguard (Arlington) – 6 male beds

Total Beds 190

Pre-Release Option

- Based upon the prior offense and program progress, offenders are screened to enter a pre-release option pool. Inmate must have post release supervision.
- 90 days prior to official release date, offenders in pre-release pool may enter TTC
- First 90 days in TTC, offender is in inmate status, in the following 90 days, offender is supervised by community corrections

TTC Post-Release Criteria:

1. No Sex offenders (current or prior)
2. No Murderers (I or II) (current or prior)
3. Robbery, Malicious Wounding, Arson, Assault (current or prior) may be sent on a case-by-case basis.
4. History of Substance Abuse or Dependence

TTC Pre-Release Criteria

Same as above with the following additions:

1. Offenders must be suitable for assignment to Security Level 1.
2. They do not have to be assigned Security Level 1.
The Offender must not have any debilitating physical, emotional or psychological problems.

Senate Bill #611

Therapeutic Incarceration Program (TIP)

- Defendant must be sentenced to 3 or more years, and require treatment for drug or alcohol substance abuse issues. Court will order an assessment by DOC
  - Following assessment, DOC may recommend the TIP to the Court. If approved, the Offender must successfully complete TC and TTC.
  - Following successful completion, the offender is released from confinement and is placed on supervised probation for a period to be specified by the court.
- 