

HB1915 – Alternate Paragraph B for 22.1-241.1

B. No school board shall make electronic textbooks available for use by students in their residence or residences unless the school board adopts a plan ~~implements measures~~ to ensure that on or before July 1, 2017 (i) each student in the local school division will have ~~has~~ actual access in his residence or residences to at least one personal computing device not shared with another student that contains an operating system and hardware necessary to support the format of each electronic textbook that the school board seeks to purchase and (ii) each student in the local school division will have ~~has~~ Internet connection service capable of transmitting information at a rate that is not less than 256 kilobits per second installed in his residence or residences.