PRESIDENT LINCOLN IN PETERSBURG

The City of Petersburg and Petersburg National Battlefield

In honor of President Lincoln's 200th birthday and in commemoration of the 144th anniversary of his visit to Petersburg, living historians from the local community and from other States will reenact events surrounding the President's visits to Petersburg in April, 1865. Come meet President Lincoln and General Grant and also get to know residents of 19th century Petersburg to find out how they felt about the fall of Petersburg and of President Lincoln himself.
